It's a good ticket.

Grover and tariff reform.

New York and Illinois make a fine combination.

The cholera epidemic is spreading rapidly throughout Russia.

The Kentucky State Teachers' Association is in session at Paducah.

Indiana will go Democratic this year without a candidate of that kind from that State.

Mr. Blaine has expressed a desire to return to Congress, and he may be elected to the House from his old district.

Campaign lies and Campaign liars ought to be nailed and shot. Deceit in political campaigns should be assiduously cultivated.

A. W. Billings, of Chicago, offers to bet $20,000 that Cleveland will be elected and that he will carry New York Illinois and Wisconsin.

Keep your eye on Illinois. In 1890 Wilson the Democratic nominee for Treasurer, defeated his Republican opponent by 9847 votes.

The two delegates from the first congressional district of Kentucky to the National Democratic Convention voted for Cleveland, and for Gray.

Senator Stewart has offered a substitute for his free silver coinage bill. He now proposes to exclude foreign silver from the privilege of free coinage.

Wm J. Campbell has been selected as chairman of the Republican National Convention, in the place of J. S. Clarkson, who declined to serve any longer.

The fight for the Prohibition nomination for President in the Cincinnati Convention has narrowed down to Gen. Bidwell and W. J. Demaree; a dark horse, however, is not an improbability.

It is said that the name of Mrs. Helen M. Gougar will be presented to the Prohibitionist Convention as a candidate for Vice-President. Rev. Sam Small is seeking for the same honor. Three cheers for the woman.

The Third Party leaders are urging Judge Gresham to accept their nomination for President. Gresham has heretofore been a Republican but he endorses the Third Party platform except the sub-treasury scheme. He pleads poverty as his excuse for declining the honors.

There is trouble between the workmen and the firm at the Carnegie iron works at the Homestead plant, in Pennsylvania, and it is a bad wage. It is said that all the Union men will be discharged July 1, and non-Union men put to work. If this be done, several thousand men will be idle.

In a national convention Kentucky may not furnish presidential timber, but with her Carlisle, Waterson, McKinzie and Owen, she is the peer of any state, and would not exchange her standing in the galaxy of States for that of those which do furnish the presidents.

The ex-President of the Farmers Alliance in Kansas, Frank McGrath, has renounced his allegiance to the Alliance and returned to the Republican party. He says that he has discovered that the Alliance is an "office-seeking, hoodlump annex to the Democratic party."

The Third Party convention in Tennessee elected delegates to the National convention at Omaha, but deferred the nomination of a candidate for Governor until after the Democrats make a nomination. It is currently rumored that if Governor Buchanan is nominated, the Third Party will not hold and the Third Party cannot date for Governor.

Protection Doomed.

There was much shivering and juggling over slavery before the issue was squarely met, just as the Democrats have been shivering and juggling over protection; but from Chicago now comes the naked issue against the mastery of the monopoly, just as the naked issue against the mastery of slavery came thirty years ago, and history will repeat itself. The cry of "free trade" was only lately as appalling to the party accused of favoring it as was the cry of "Black Republican" in 1860; but it is no longer a title to conjure with. The Harrison administration now plumes itself on the reciprocity feature of the new tariff, and reciprocity is only free trade—or fair trade. Republican New England was once for free trade, and Webster sounded its sentiment in one of the ablest speeches of his life, and it now would prefer free trade to monopoly protection. The Republican West where only a few years ago the average popular vote was two to one Republican, is now not only against monopoly protection, but, under the cutting lash greed, it is now largely against all protection, and the tariff platform just adopted here will be an inspiration to revolution, and will make every State west of Ohio to the Rocky mountains doubtful in the coming battle.

I profoundly regret that the sincere friends of legitimate protection have been impotent in saving protection from the slimy fatal embrace of monopoly, just as conservative men of both sections earnestly deplored the remorseless grasp of slavery for imperial power; but grinding unrestrained monopoly has forced the issue, and whether it shall be this year or later, I regard the death of Protection as now inevitable. And like slavery, it will be the colossal suicide of this generation.—Col. A. K. McClure, in Philadelphia Times.

Congressman John R. Fellows, one of the leaders of Tammany Hall in an interview says these will be no juggling among New York Democrats. Of Senator Hill he says: "He will do more hard work than almost any other man. He is a Democrat; a strong willing man who never sneaks, and will do all in his power for the success of the party."

Again, I will say that the Republican who thinks that the New York Democracy will be apathetic in this campaign will grievously admit his error. I do not mean to say that we have changed our opinions, for we still believe that with Cleveland the fight in New York is harder, but we are prepared to make a hard, determined fight, and will make one."

The head of the ticket the tail of the ticket and the platform is meeting with the hearty approval of Democrats every where. The campaign opens most auspiciously for the Democrats; the prospects for electing the ticket are flattering.

The legislature has been in session 181 days, and if the past is the best prophet of the future that body will be in session the remainder of the 365 days and then leave work undone.

The Jessamine Journal is not pleased with the new local option bill. It says:

"The Senate has amended the Local Option bill until it must suit exactly every man interested in the sale of liquor. As it stands it is plan trucking to the liquor traffic and an insult to the temperance people of the State. Surely no State was ever afflicted with a legislature body more in league with the corrupt elements of society than is the Kentucky Senate."

The National Prohibition Convention convened in Cincinnati yesterday. There are 1191 delegates.

Already the campaign liar has commenced. The first and biggest is that Adlai E. Stevenson gave his influence towards disrupting the Union during the late unpleasantness. Mr. Stevenson promptly nails the lie.

A BLACK PARTY.

The Negroes of Texas Making an Independent Political Organization—The Platform.

San Antonio, Tex., June 28.—Guadalupe county saw the birth of a new party which has no connection with the Democracy, Republicanism, Prohibition or any political organization heretofore existing. Indeed it is opposed to them all. Under a call issued by B. Berry, a large number of negroes assembled in mass meeting and perfected a permanent organization, with Berry as Chairman, and adopted a platform which calls for negro nominations for every office within the gift of the American people, from President down to Constable. It recites that Democracy is inherently opposed to the African; that Republicanism has been false to him; that there is no hope for him in the People's party, and that he is the national balance of power. Delegates from every voting precinct were duly appointed and a convention called for July 22.

HANGED TO A LIMB:

A Tennessee Farmer Lynched for Murdering his Wife.

Shelbyville, Tenn., June 27.—Will Bates, a thirty year old farmer of this county, was lynched by his neighbors in the court house yard here this morning at 11 o'clock. The charge against him was wife murder, and that he was guilty, there is but little doubt. Mr. Bates was beaten to death with a fence rail last Thursday morning, while gathering vegetables for dinner. The alleged discovery of the crime was made by Bates when he went to the house for dinner, and he started the report that his wife had been outraged and murdered. Her skull has been crushed and her face horribly mutilated. Unfortunately for Bates there appeared before the Coroner's jury a neighbor woman, who swore that she had seen Bates beating his wife and heard her screaming.

CHILDREN KILLED.

Lightning Destroys the Lives of Two Little Girls in Carter County Kentucky.

Enterprise Ky., June 27.—Lightning struck the residence of Milburn Hall, jr., near Court's Crossroads, last night, considerably damaging it and killing his two little girls, Mary and Birdie, aged fourteen and twelve years. The other members of the family were badly shocked, and the father and mother are prostrated with grief.

The Trial of Alice Mitchell.

Memphis, Tenn., June 27.—The case of Alice Mitchell, the slayer of Freda Ward, was called in the Criminal Court this morning, but after a consultation between the defense and the State, it was decided to postpone the trial until September, on account of the absence of two State witnesses and the extreme heat Judge Dubose, however, said that as the killing was done in January, six months ago, it was time to go to trial, and after some further discussion the case was reset for July 18. Both sides will be ready by that date.

The Case of R. Y. Rhomas, Jr.

Central City, Ky., June 27.—R. Y. Thomas, an account of whose actions was given in Saturdays Courier Journal, was not shot, as supposed by some, but arrested Saturday on peace warrants sworn out by those whose lives he threatened, and his bonds were fixed at $500 for each offense, amounting to over $2,000. He was given until this evening to give bond, and has failed to do so and went to Greenville under guard today, and succeeded in getting out a writ of habeas corpus, which will take him trial to Greenville to-morrow. He fled between twenty and thirty damage suits against citizens of Central City to-day.

A HORRIBLE DEATH.

Joe Hudson, an Employee of the DeKoven Mining Company, Found Dead.

DeKoven, June 24.—Was he killed by the cars or was he dead when the cars struck him? Old man Joe Hudson was either killed outright this morning by a train of loaded cars coming out of the O. V. Mining Co's slope or fell in a fit and died. No one knows just how he met his death. He was employed by the company to keep up fire in the furnaces. He was a very old man and subject to epileptic fits, as I have been told, this morning by two physicians who have attended him and his family for many years. The engineer, John Shaw had his engine in motion hauling a trip of loaded cars out of the mines, and when the trip was almost out he discovered the engine was pulling heavily, as it sometimes does when a car leaves the track, consequently he shut off the steam and notified the hands on the tip that something was wrong and that some of them had better go down the slope and investigate the matter. Among those who went down was John Bettger, who helped to get the old man from under the third car in the trip. No blood could be found on the first car, but the wheels of the second car were bespattered with blood and flesh which had been cut from the bones of the victim. His left arm was broken in two places, his left leg almost cut in two, his head mashed to a pulp and his body mangled in a manner too horrible to mention.—Sturgis Enterprise.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce JOHN T. FRANKS a candidate for Sheriff of Crittenden county, subject to the action of the Republican party. He will appreciate your vote and influence.

To THE VOTERS OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY: Having served you for the past two years as Sheriff, I take this method of expressing to you my gratitude for the confidence imposed in me. It has been the custom of the county to endorse all past Sheriffs who have asked it of the people, and feeling that my treatment of the people has been such as to merit an endorsement at your hands, I announce myself as a candidate for reelection.

I feel that my experience will enable me to serve you better in the future than in the past, and if chosen by the people, will endeavor to do so. Yours truly,
A. L. CRUCE.

JUDGE W. W. ROBERTSON,

OF GRAVES COUNTY,
Is a candidate for Congress from this, the First District. Election Nov. 1892. He is subject to the action of the Democratic party.

JUDGE JAMES CAMPBELL,

OF McCRACKEN COUNTY,
Is a candidate for Congress from this, the First District. Election, November, 1892. He is subject to the action of the Democratic party.

JOHN K. HENDRICK,

OF LIVINGSTON COUNTY,
Is a candidate for Congress from the First district. Election November, 1892. Subject to the action of the Democratic party.

To THE VOTERS OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for re-election to the office of Circuit Court Clerk subject to the action of the Republican party. I wish to return to the people of this county my heart felt thanks for the support given in the past. Whatever may be my lot in the future one of the brightest spots in my life will be the memory of what the people of Crittenden county have done for me. I have endeavored to so regulate my official conduct as to be worthy of the confidence reposed in me and the honor conferred upon me. If I have discharged the duties of the office with a conscientious regard for the interest of the people, without partiality to any party or shade of political belief but treating all men exactly alike and if I have performed the work of the office properly and right I respectfully ask an endorsement at your hands. For the next term if elected, I can promise nothing more than what I have earnestly endeavored to do in the past to faithfully and impartially discharge every duty incumbent upon the office with profound gratitude for your support.

Very Respectfully,
H. A. HAYNES.

To THE VOTERS OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY: I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the office of Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. I have for twenty four years stood with the rank and file of the party and with them borne the heat and burden of the day, in doing so, I simply expressed my conviction of the policy of the two great parties of the country. While I am a democrat I have always cheerfully recognized the right of my neighbor to entertain and express different opinions. In this office its occupants can in no way make or influence the laws of State or Nation and I maintain it should be filled regardless of political prejudice and without pandering to partisanship, the people should with reference to the position and standing of the man and ever with a zealous regard for his qualifications to discharge the duties of the office, select and elect a good man and not a partisan.

My business training has led me for a number of years in a channel which taught and instructed me in the duties of this office, and without presumption or egotism I felt that I am qualified for the discharge of its duties, and can promise if elected to make a faithful and competent clerk. To my many friends of all parties if you can agree with me in the sentiments I have here expressed I ask your suffrage and if it should be my good fortune to be your choice you will ever have my heartfelt gratitude, and I assure you I shall recognize and appreciate my position if elected, as that of a public servant and from no official act of mine will any man know my politics.

Very Respectfully,
J. R. FINLEY.

Ladies you should call at Skelton and see his fine triple plated silverware that he is giving away.
With the exceptions of a few crops the wheat in this county is fine; so is the corn, and the oat crop will be good.
J. T. Elder will build a handsome residence on the new street to be opened northward from the Presbyterian church.
The building lumber dealers are being rushed with orders. This is good indication of the continued growth of Marion.
Messrs. Hicks, Ager, of Princeton, and James McGrigor, of Dalton, were examined by the pension board at this place Wednesday.
The normal school is proving to be a success. Whenever Rev. J. F. Price takes hold of anything it may be counted upon as a success.
I must say of all the advertising that I ever got I have never seen prices made so low as they were given to me by Schwab this week.
Whenever a railroad is built by or to Crittenden Springs, it will be the leading water place in Kentucky and the road will be built some day.
The Presbyterian ladies served ice cream in the court house yard Tuesday evening. They are raising funds to paper their church building.
Mr. T. F. Newcomb, who was granted at the term of court licenses to practice law, will teach school this fall. Frank is one of our coming men, and will make his mark at the bar.
A location has been selected for the butter and cheese factory. It is on east Bellville street, just north of the little bridge; the work of the building will be commenced in a few days.
Taking leases and options on mineral lands in this county continues. Something is going to happen in Crittenden some of these days, and who knows but what a silver mines will be developed.
The working of prisoners on the streets to pay their fines appears to be a failure. There is not work sufficient to keep them engaged, and it is rather expensive to hire a guard to keep one man at work.
There appears to be no thought about reviving the Crittenden county fair. The purchasers have rented the grounds for farming purposes. There are not enough people in the county who appreciate a fair to make one a success.

The new machinery for Brown & Ward's lead mines, the old Tabbs mines, has all arrived and a large force of hands is engaged in placing it in position.
The farmers are getting their crops in good shape. The pretty weather of last week has given them an opportunity to kill the weeds, and the opportunity has not gone by unimproved.

The little child of Rev. S. K. Breeding died Wednesday. It has been sick several months; the family went to the country a few days ago, hoping that the change would benefit it. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the community.
Three of our young lawyers made their first big speeches Wednesday in the King case. They were O. M. James, C. S. Nunn and E. C. Flannery. They acquitted themselves with honor, and were warmly congratulated by the older members of the bar.
The following are the names of the jurors in the King rape case now on trial:
M. F. Crayne, W. C. Tyner, W. E. Weldon, F. M. Jones, I. B. Hodges, W. J. Brown, T. T. Murphy, W. D. Johnson, C. L. Ballard, T. R. Bradford, W. T. Massey, J. W. Lynn.
On account of the threatened paralysis of the hand Mr. Alvey the O. V. agent at this place, has been advised by his physician to give up his work as operator; he will accordingly send in his resignation shortly. During his short stay at Marion he has proven a popular agent. While all the agents who have at different times been located at Marion have been satisfactory, the return of Mr. J. E. Brawner would please Marion people, and his return is among the probabilities.
The meagre particulars of a mad woman's attempt to kill her husband come from Graves county. Living near Mayfield is a Mr. Eunice and wife. The women, it would appear, has been afflicted with insanity the effect of illness. Last night her madly assumed a serious form, and while her husband slept she made an attempt to kill him. She assaulted him with a case knife and so badly cut his throat that it required six stitches to sew up the wound—Paducah News.
From the Atlantic Journal we learn that Miss Lucy A. Caldwell, daughter of Mr. Jno A. Caldwell, formerly of this place, graduated from the academy of West End. The Journal says: Miss Caldwell graduated last night from West End Academy with first honors. She is an unusually bright and attractive young lady and has a large circle of friends. The feature of the evening was the reading of the valedictory by Miss Caldwell. Her subject was "Pleasures of Life. A Prospect," and abounded in kind and gentle thoughts expressed in well chosen words and rounded sentences.
Judge Caswell Bennett, of the court of appeals, arrived in Marion yesterday and will go out to Crittenden Springs to-day to spend a few weeks of his holidays. Save the silver tinge that has delicately over-spread his hair and beard, the Judge is the same vigorous man, mentally and physically, that he was when he practiced law at the Crittenden bar years ago. For years no man has been nearer to the hearts of the people of Western Kentucky than Judge Bennett; and his magnificent record as Judge of the highest court in the State, has added to his popularity in this section. When the time for choosing his successor comes he can, if he desires be easily made his own successor. The Judge's recreation at Crittenden Springs will be shared by his wife, and his little daughter, Miss Virginia.
R. Y. Thomas, jr., who killed Elmore at Caseyville some years ago was one of the principals in a shooting scrape at Central City few days ago. With a shot gun he fired several shots at T. J. Oldham, editor of the Central City Herald; with a revolver Oldham returned the shots, but no one was seriously hurt. Thomas' wife left for Louisville, and a gentleman at the depot assisted her in getting her ticket; this irritated Thomas and he undertook to kill the man; in this a number of citizens undertook to arrest Thomas, and he left town. Whiskey has occasioned his downfall. He was a bright man and once a bright future was before him, but drink, has so thoroughly overshadowed his skies and blighted his life that there seems to be no hope for him.

Mr. John Bennett, of Tola, was in town Monday, and notwithstanding the weight of eighty years he is active, handsome and pleasant.
Mrs. Elizabeth Douglass went to Cartersville, Ill., Wednesday. The illness of Mr. B. F. Copeland's little boy was the occasion of her trip.
Mrs. F. E. Robertson and Miss Eliza Onutt were called to Union county Tuesday by a telegram announcing the serious illness of their mother.
Mr. Otto Gentzel and wife, of Clarksville, Tenn., were guests of Mr. J. W. Wallace the first of the week. Mrs. Gentzel will spend the summer at Marion.
Mr. W. G. Hammond, for several years foreman of the Press printing rooms, left Monday for Shawneetown, where he has secured a lucrative position in a printing office.
Mr. Jas Cox and bride of Water Valley, Ky., were the guests of Mr. J. B. Hubbard Tuesday. The bride was Miss Mattie Hubbard, daughter of Mr. B. D. Hubbard, formerly of this county, but now of Water Valley. She went to Princeton last week to visit friends, and Mr. Cox quietly followed, and on Monday they were united in marriage. The Press extends congratulations.
Prof. J. N. Robinson, of Hampton was in town Monday, on his way home from Blandville, Ky. He has been employed to teach the school at the latter place, and will move down there to begin work Sept 1. Prof. Robinson is a fine teacher, a scholarly gentleman and a useful citizen and the people of Blandville will find that they have done the wise thing in employing him.
While ever merchant will tell you that provisions and fruit jars have advanced 125 percent. Is it not advisable to buy from the leading grocer, Schwab as he bought early and before the advance, as he does always and he never fails to be in time to buy when the market is the lowest, and he is prepared to give you extra inducements to buy in order to make room. Having those large houses full and they must get empty—Call and see him and get prices.

MASONIC DAY.

A Large Crowd in Marion, and the Day Appropriately Observed.
Some weeks ago Bigham Lodge F. A. A. M. of this place began its arrangements to celebrate St. John's day. Various committees were appointed, and invitations were extended to neighbor lodges to join in the celebrations. When Friday came, it was a pleasant beautiful day, and everything was in readiness for commemorating the patron saint. Early in the morning visitors began to arrive, and by ten o'clock the town was full of Masons and their friends. The two excursion trains over the O V brought crowded coaches. Visitors were present from Princeton, Fredonia, Liberty, DeKoven, Uniontown, Salem, Mt. Zion and Hurricane lodges. At 10 o'clock the members of the fraternity gathered at the Hall, and after brotherly greetings in an informal way, they formed in line as they left the room, and marched to the beautiful ground north of town. Some 800 or 400 were in line. At the grove which had been prepared for the occasion, about 3000 visitors had gathered to hear the speaking. Rev. A. Clay Yates, of Vincennes, Ind., was the first speaker and his theme was:
"The Principles and Mission of Ancient Free and Accepted Masonry With earnestness and eloquence he addressed the people, and had the closest attention as he handled his subject in a masterly manner. At noon the four long tables were laden with barbecued meats and other delicious edibles, in an orderly manner every visitor paid his respects to the bountiful feast, and the large crowd was fed without jostle or jostle. After dinner Capt C. T. Allen, of Princeton, was called to the stand. His subject was:
"The Dealings of Providence with Masonry."
Hon. Thomas S. Pettit, of Owensboro, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, was on the program for this oration, but his absence made the selection of another necessary, and in the selection of Capt Allen, the committee made no mistake. He is an eloquent speaker, and handled the subject admirably; his utterances found a responsive chord in the heart of every hearer. After his speech, Rev. Mr. Yates concluded the oration. He began in the forenoon. It was a great day for the fraternity, and the admirable management speaks well of the devotion and hospitality of the local lodge.
The ice cream and lemonade stands were run for the benefit of the Widows and Orphans Home at Louisville, and a handsome sum was realized from this source.
Saturday a gentleman from Caldwell county was in town with his little daughter, hunting a mad stone. The child had been bitten by a dog and it was feared that the dog had hydrophobia. Last week one or two dogs in this community were killed because of indications that they had the rabies. This is a good season of the year to kill dogs; about all they are useful for is to be killed, and our experience with the hydrophobia last year is certainly enough to convince the people that where the muzzle is not used, the shot gun should be.
Mormon preachers are continuing to make frequent visits to this county, and their doctrine is preached earnestly by these itinerant apostles. The people generally give them a respectful hearing in order to learn something of their teachings, and the preachers themselves are treated with the utmost courtesy, and are hospitably entertained. They are, however, making no converts and it may be safely said that they never will find any adherents among the people of Crittenden county.
The Marvel String Band, composed of Wm. Marvel, Hughie Gilbert and Hugh Wilborn is opened for engagements for barbecues, picnics etc. This band makes fine music and the managers of public gatherings where good music is needed will do well to employ it. The is very popular and has been warmly greeted whenever and wherever employed. Address any of its members at Marion.
The town trustees of Dycusburg granted Messrs C. E. Doss and A. J. Baker, under the firm name of C. E. Doss & Co., licenses to retail liquor in the corporate limits of that town. On the 24th the county Judge appeared before the county Judge and the $150 State tax, executed a bond not to violate the law and was duly authorized to begin business. This is the only saloon in the county and the first for some time.
At the regular meeting Monday night of Marion Lodge, A. O. U. W. the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: J. P. Pierce, W. M., P. C. Stephens, G. F. S. C. Haynes, O. J. W. Skelton, R. A. M. Straub, F. B. F. Mayer, I. W. J. L. Grissom, O. W., C. E. Doss, trustee, S. R. Adams, G.
I will have brick ready for delivery from my yard at Marion on Monday July 11.
Hered Travis.

CIRCUIT COURT.

No Verdict in the Imboden Case. Verdict in the Stone Life Insurance Case Set Aside.

Commonwealth vs. Clifford Kailor, malicious cutting, entered plea of guilty and fined $100.

The jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. John Imboden, reported that it could not agree upon a verdict, the jury was dismissed and case continued.

The damage suit of A. Woody vs. G. D. Summerville was by, agreement, continued.

In the case of Linnie Hughes vs. D. A. Hughes, her husband, for divorce, the court granted the plaintiff a divorce.

The attorney in the case of Daniel Stone vs. Washington Life Insurance Co, made a motion for a new trial, and after hearing the arguments of both sides, the court granted a new trial, setting the verdict of the jury aside upon the ground that it was not in accordance with the evidence.

W. H. Walker, W. H. Crow and M. H. Weldon were appointed jury commissioners to select the grand and petit jurors for the next term of court.

When the case of the Commonwealth vs. Wm. King and others, charged with rape, was called, attorney Powell was absent on account of illness, J. W. Blue was appointed prosecuting attorney and the court is now engaged in the trial of that case.

The O. V. Has a New President. The Courier-Journal of the 28th says:

Gen. John Echols has been made President of the Ohio Valley railway and that company has finally bought the Princeton branch of the Louisville and Nashville. Gen. Echols has already assumed the duties of President, and he will, on Friday next, take charge of the new division recently purchased.

The election of Gen. Echols means the retirement of P. G. Kelsey from the head of the Ohio Valley railroad where he has been for such a long time. Gen. Echols is now Third Vice President of the N. N. & M. V. and President of the O. V. Several months ago he was made Vice-President of the latter company. He has managed it with great success and built up its traffic in both the passenger and freight departments. He has always since his connection with the company, managed its affairs, and his election to the Presidency is largely in the nature of a compliment for his services. Still he is more free to act now as its President and will begin improving the road in every way. His election took place last week in New York. It is not known why Mr. Kelsey was not known as no particulars of the meeting have as yet been made public.

Even more important than Gen. Echols' promotion is the purchase of the Princeton branch of the L. & N. railroad. Last fall there was some gossip about such a deal, but it was denied by all concerned. The Ohio Valley forced the sale by threatening to build a parallel road from Princeton to Gracey, then on to Hopkinsville. The L. & N. branch now extends from Princeton to Clarksville, but the company has retained the section from Gracey to Clarksville. The Ohio Valley is now laying track between Gracey, one terminus of their new purchase, to Hopkinsville. This will give the Ohio Valley 135 miles of track. It is believed that as soon as the branch is finished the road will be pushed into Nashville.

Don't you think it is advisable to buy your groceries provision and fruit jars at such ruinous prices as you can get them now at Schwab. Advise to the people.

The Marion hotel is being handsomely touched up by the new proprietor, Mr. Loving.

FINE HOUSE BURNED.

Daniel Stone Loses His Big Residence.

The large two-story brick residence of Mr. Daniel Stone, near Tola, was destroyed by fire Wednesday morning. Shortly after breakfast it was discovered that the house was on fire, and the flames had spread to such an extent that it was useless to fight them, and the persons present went to work to save the household goods, most of which they succeeded in getting beyond the reach of the fire. How the fire originated is not known but it is supposed that it caught from a chimney in which a fire was kindled early in the morning. The house was perhaps the finest residence in the county, it was built several years ago by Mr. Wallace at a cost of $8,000. Mr. Stone had no insurance upon it.

The Judicial District.

The new Judicial District will embrace Crittenden, Livingston, Caldwell and Hopkins counties. The Democratic Committee of the district will meet at Princeton, Monday July 4th, to take such steps as may be deemed necessary and proper to nominate candidates for Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney.

If there be one thing on earth which is truly admirable, it is to see God's wisdom blessing an inferiority of natural powers when they have been honestly, truly and zealously cultivated.—Dr. Arnold.

Before Christianity entered India, lepers were treated with shocking humanity. Many of them were buried alive. The English rulers have put a stop to this custom, and for fourteen years there has been a special Christian mission to the 135,000 lepers in India.

The total property valuation of the Catholic church in the United States in 1880 was $9,250,728; in 1890 it was $21,744,119; in 1897 it was $30,250,265. That is to say, the aggregate wealth of the Catholic church increased about 15 per cent from 1880 to 1890, and about 128 per cent from 1880 to 1897.—N. O. Times-Democrat.

Mrs. Gen. Custer is one of the few semi-professional women in New York who can hold the interest of a school full of boys. In her talks on frontier life to these restless audiences, who must be interested before they will consent to be instructed, she begins with some true Indian stories, bristling with tomahawks, feathers and scalp, and presently has the listeners spell-bound. As science cannot determine origin, so it cannot determine destiny; as it presents a sectional view of creation, so it gives only a sectional view of everything in creation. It is only a sectional view in time, but in scope and reach. Everything rises out of its domain, and disappears from its view in that larger world which is about it; a crystal and a man are equally applicable within its reach, its limited range of vision.—Rev. T. Munger, D. D.

WOMEN AND LADIES.

Instances of the Indecent Application of the Term Lady.

There have been some amusing instances of the misapplication of the word lady, which custom has decreed to mean a woman of social position.

A girl waiter in a large hotel in an eastern city approached a guest with this query:

"Has any other lady taken your order?" This was equivalent to the politeness of the little girl who surprised the family by announcing:

"Mamma, the swell lady is at the back door."

There is the story of the mistress of a fashionable house who, on being left without any servant, answered the door by announcing:

"I am very sorry, ma'am, that I can not accommodate you, but we have no ladies here at present."

A minister who was very polite changed a portion of Scripture to read, "Ladies and gentlemen created He them," and a lecturer who cared more for the sweet phrases of politeness than for the plain statements of the truth, rung this query upon an astonished audience, as he discoursed on the characteristics of women:

"Who were the last at the cross? Ladies. Who were the first at the sepulcher? Ladies."

But even he was undone by the exquisite divine who, as he concluded musing a couple, said gallantly:

"I now pronounce you husband and lady."—Detroit Free Press.

Connecticut Enterprise.

The latest fish story is of a Connecticut river shad weighing three and a half pounds assimilating a five-inch railroad spike. The shad, on being opened, was found to contain a spike imbedded near the liver, which organ, together with the sides of the fish, was covered with rust, and all the evidence pointed to the conclusion that the spike had lain there for some time. Stuffing Connecticut river shad with railroad spikes to increase their weight is an industry that will soon surpass the basswood ham and wooden sausage of earlier times.—Columbus Press.

The growth of grace is like the polishing of metals. There is first an opaque surface; by and by you see a spark darting out, then a strong light, till at length it sends back a perfect image of the sun that shines upon it.

Mrs. Mangle (to hotel clerk)—"If a package comes for me from the dress-makers, just pay it and charge it up to sundries in my husband's bill. Clerk—"Certainly, madam; but—er—don't you think he might be suspicious?" Mrs. Mangle (thoughtfully)—"Well, there is something to that. I guess after all you had better charge it up to his liquor account."—Columbus Press.

The Infantile View.—They say that I have out a tooth. But why I can not see. If it be only the truth, they'd see that it cut me.

—Harper's Bazar.

The newspapers poke a good deal of fun at the summer girl and a narrow-seated buggy and a moonlight night make a very attractive combination.—Somerville Journal.

Had an Article that Would.—Shopping (after dropping several bracelets into an umbrella)—"You see those suits me." Jeweler (producing hand-kerchiefs)—"Here's just the thing for a lady of your style."—Jeweler's Weekly.

Young Blood (to pretty girl whom he had followed)—"May I have the pleasure of accompanying you on your promenade?" Pretty Girl—"Oh, don't let me detain you; it's nearly one o'clock. Won't you be late for school?"—Demorest's Monthly.

SCHOOL AND CHURCH.

The freshman class at Princeton university for next year will number 270. The increase of students over last year is about 15 per cent.

Co-education seems to be a great success at Ann Arbor. The university has just graduated 620 students. This is the greatest number ever graduated by any college.

The university at Tomsik is the banner "deadhead" educational institution. Of its 292 students 197 are educated at the expense of the government as "needy and worthy" young men. Last year the government spent $15,000 on them.

At the May meeting of the American Bible society grants of books were made to the value of about $182. Appropriations were also made amounting to $55,573.22. The books from the Bible house during May were 72,348 volumes; since April 107,540 volumes.

It is not often that a synagogue is offered for sale. Hebrews are powerful enemies of any enterprise that is once taken up. The Temple Mount Sinai in New York city, has, however, proved a failure, there being really no constituency behind it, and it is openly advertised to the highest bidder.

The freshman class at Princeton university for next year will number probably between 270 and 280 men. The total number of those examined is 498, and of these 298 have applied for admission to the academic course and 194 to the scientific school. Examinations have been held in forty-six different places.

Notwithstanding the determined efforts of the orthodox church to suppress all religious dissent in Russia the number of sects is constantly on the increase. Thus the government of Novgorod numbered 1,114 sects in 1880, 8,453 Rasbolskies in 1885. In 1890 the Rasbolskies numbered 107,407 Orthodox, 302,320 Rasbolskies, 10,000 Sectarians. In 1890 the latter constituted only 0.8 per cent of the population; one decade later they represented 2.6 per cent.

In 1890 Prussia had 727 agricultural schools with 11,114 scholars, 329 guild schools with 62,029 scholars. Thirty-five schools of various kinds increased the total to 1,832. It is proposed to extend this already existing system by means of new state subsidies of $250,000 annually. The new institutions contemplated are: Four for builders, eight for master machinists, seven for weavers, two for tailors, and one for shoemakers and one for instruction in ceramics.

Harvard is two hundred and fifty-five years old and has graduated seven thousand students. A little more than half of these are living. Harvard's oldest living graduate in point of class connection is Dr. Frederick A. Farley, of the class of 1818. He is probably the oldest minister in Brooklyn. Harvard's oldest living graduate in point of personal age is Rev. William Wittington, of Washington, who is over ninety-two. Yale's oldest boy is Edward McCready, of Charleston, S. C., who graduated with the late ex-President Woodley in 1820.

CALL BY THE ANGELS.

"Father" Came and Beckoned Her to Join the Angelic Host.

A few years ago an aged couple lived in a quiet home on Washington boulevard, near Union park. Their married life covered more than three score years. They were especially devoted to each other, and advancing years seemed to elapse the bonds of early love closer and closer. They were people of much refinement and culture. At length the old gentleman passed peacefully and happily away. The widow survived and seemed to live in the same close companionship that had made beautiful all their married life. The spirit side of life was toward her, and the certain so she could catch glimpses of the "other side."

Her nineteenth birthday was near. The natural forces were yielding and her friends knew the supreme moment was only a little way off. Her mind retained all its strength and clearness, and when thoughts of the future came with especial force there seemed a spiritual illumination that caught its tints from the border land.

One morning she said to her daughter, "Frances, I am weary lying in bed. I believe it would rest me to sit up a little while." Her daughter assisted her to arise, and bolstered her up in the rocking-chair as comfortable as possible. She had been there a little while when she said: "Frances, father is here." She always called her husband father. Her daughter said: "No, mother, father is not here. You must have been dreaming."

"No, Frances, I did not dream; father is here. Don't you see him? He is standing at the foot of the bed." The daughter said something, hoping it quiet her, but it did not. "If you see him, Frances? He is beckoning to me." The old lady then became quiet and seemed to be resting. Pretty soon she started up and said with much emotion: "Frances, do you hear my music? 'O! no, mother, I don't hear any music.' 'Can't you, Frances? It is beautiful—beautiful.' After a short pause she said: 'Hark, Frances. It is coming nearer—beautiful—beautiful.' Frances went to the door to see if there was any music on the street, but there was none. When she returned her mother was with the angels.—Chicago Herald.

AN AFFAIR OF THE HEART.

How a German Swain Regained His Lost Affection.

Slova of Kiel reports the following incident: A German physician passing through the city stopped at a hotel for a few days. The news spread in town that he was Dr. Koch, and in a short time the hotel was besieged with invalids who sought his advice. Among the callers was a strapping young woman leading a stalwart fellow by the sleeve of his coat.

"Please, Dr. Koch, your illustrious German excellency," she said, addressing the physician, "this is my husband. We are married only three months and his love to me is already cooling. There must be something wrong about his heart. Could your illustrious German excellency cure him?"

With a smile which he could hardly suppress the doctor asked her whether there was anything else the matter with her husband. She said that he was otherwise all right; he worked diligently, etc., and slept well and did not complain of any aches. But he ceased to love her and his heart needed a cure.

"Why don't you love your wife?" he asked.

"I don't know," answered the other, with a sheepish air; "probably the heart got sick, your illustrious German excellency."

"Cure him, your honor!" pleaded the woman.

The doctor could not rid himself of them until at last he ordered the man to bare his breast and made an incision in his skin, which he covered with a porous plaster. The young man protested that his heart was instantly changed by the operation and that he now loved his wife more than ever before.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is well adapted to children that I recommend it as a superior family prescription known to me." H. A. Zerkow, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is a universal and its merits so well known that it needs no work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eruption, Skin Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion, without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

WE'VE GOT IT!!

The Farmer Needs It, and It is Within His Reach.

LOOK AT THIS PICTURE.

With such a machine the farmer might drive off to town for a new supply of time if he liked. It might cut for all his neighbors without ever asking them the value of gates or condition of roads, it being but necessary for him to follow any track that he might find, feeling that he wanted nothing better than a way sufficient for a wagon. A hill side road will serve him every purpose.

The Deering Machines have all the good points that other machines have, and better still, they have good points that no other machine have. Can go over any wagon road, can be stored away wherever a buggy will go. No trouble changing from one field to another. Don't buy until you see the Deering for yourself. We have the
